Subject: Advisory Regarding Unauthorized “Nagradyaksh Cup” Tournament at Gondia

Dear Sir/Madam,

It has come to the notice of the Maharashtra Badminton Association (MBA) that a flyer is being circulated on social media regarding a Multi-District Badminton Tournament titled “Nagradyaksh Cup” proposed to be held at District Sports Complex Badminton Hall, Maratoli, Gondia on 25th & 26th April 2026.

In this connection, it is hereby informed that the said tournament has not obtained prior permission from the Maharashtra Badminton Association. As per the Tournament Guidelines of MBA, any tournament involving participation from multiple districts must obtain due approval from the State Association through the concerned District Association before conducting the event.

Since no such permission has been sought or granted, the above-mentioned tournament is treated as an unauthorized tournament.

All players, coaches, and technical officials affiliated with MBA are hereby strictly advised not to participate, officiate, or associate in any manner with the said tournament.

Please note that participation or involvement in unauthorized tournaments shall attract disciplinary action as per the rules and regulations of the Maharashtra Badminton Association and the Badminton Association of India. Appropriate action may be initiated against players as well as technical officials found violating these directives.

All District Associations are requested to circulate this advisory among their affiliated players, coaches, and officials immediately.

This issues with the approval of the competent authority.

With warm regards,

Siddharth Patil
Hony. Secretary
